33 EXPLANATION

34 This bill relates to the criminal offense of abuse of a
35 corpse.

1     The bill transfers some "abuse of a corpse" provisions from
2 Code section 709.18 to Code chapter 708 (assault) and creates
3 new Code section 708.14. The bill renames the "abuse of a
4 corpse" offense remaining in Code section 709.18 as "sexual 5 abuse of a corpse".

6     The bill requires a person who commits sexual abuse of 7 a corpse to register as a tier II sex offender. A tier II
8 offender must verify the offender's relevant information with 9 the county sheriff of the principal place of residence every 10 six months.

11    The bill does not modify the penalty classification for the 12 criminal offense that remains in Code section 709.18 or for the 13 criminal offenses transferred to new Code section 708.14. A
14 person who commits a violation of the bill commits a class "D"
15 felony.

16    The bill does effect the criminal penalties applicable to 17 the criminal offenses transferred to new Code section 708.14.
18 Under the bill, as a result of transferring the criminal
19 offenses to new Code section 708.14, these transferred offenses
20 are no longer sexual offenses under Code chapter 709 and
21 therefore not subject to a special sentence pursuant to Code
22 section 903B.2.
